

November 2007 Rodney newsletter

What an awesome time we had with Carmel Fisher from Fisher funds at last month's event. It's hard to believe that a woman so calm and serene is dealing with millions of dollars on a daily basis. We received very wise advice following Carmel's intriguing career story. Thank you also to Yolanda Cholmondeley - Smith for providing our lucky draw gift and to Heartchildren NZ for introducing us to their organization. Thanks also for those who remembered to bring clothing for Dress for Success. Our Pre Xmas final event for the year will be Wednesday 21 November at the North Harbour Stadium Event centre. This is a combined event with North Harbour Network and is going to be simply awesome! Only 100 people can attend so I cannot stress enough that you must RSVP asap. We have live entertainment, Xmas buffet dinner, Fabulous speaker, fun, Giveaways and everyone will go home with a $100 value Xmas gift bag of goodies. A huge thank you to Leigh Knapp who arranged $2000 sponsorship from ING and Tower insurance for Wine and Juice on the tables allowing us to make this fullservice function available at food cost only. Allie Mooney -

"How to survive the Xmas season without killing the family"

Have you ever wondered why some people have their Christmas shopping well and truly completed before October, while some are out there fighting the crowds on Christmas Eve hugely distracted by friends co-ercing them to have a Christmas drink before they take on the stores! Could it have something to do with how we are wired? Allison Mooney, international speaker/author, will share some insight as to why Christmas can be a let down when catching up with family. From those that wont stop talking, to the no-nonsense clean up types, the snoozes or the Captains that keep the day moving. Come and hear how you can make this time of year a fabulous memory. Don't miss this entertaining and hilarious speaker!! www.personalities.co.nz
