Business Promotion - We don't just sell space, we sell Service

Hibiscuslink is a service committed to work for the promotion of local business and non-profit groups and services to become known within their local and wider communities and provides useful services for all members of the community.

Our promotional services are offered through the mediums of web, print and networking with low cost, high value options allowing all businesses, large or small, an outlet for promoting themselves.

Our three Steps of Service are listening to your needs and requirements, working with you to maximise the promotion of your services and continuously assist in providing that promotion 24/7, maintain a regular update service and work with you.

At the end of 2008 our website averaged approximately 60,000 hits per month making us a valuable local promotion option.
